

MAHER FITZ FIGHTS A DAYBREAK

Principals and Spectators to come on a Train En Route for the Ringside.

Battleground, It Is Believed, Will Be Near Fort Hancock, on Texan Soil.

The Purse Has Been Placed in the Hands of Referee Siler to insure Quick Payment.

WERE AFRAID FITZ WOULD QUIT.

His Actions Led the Sports to Believe That He and Julian Would Invite the Mexican Authorities to Take Them Into Custody.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 20.—A train on the Southern Pacific left here at 10 o'clock to-night carrying the pugilists and prospective spectators for the Maher-Fitzsimmons battle, which, it is believed, will be fought near Fort Hancock, Tex.

The fight will probably take place shortly after daybreak.

The sidewalk of the street on which the carnival headquarters is situated was thronged at 5 o'clock this evening for a block or two either way, and the cross streets were about equally congested. Tail, strapping Texas rangers, with yellow leather belts loaded down with cartridges, were passing through the crowds gathered in small knots at the corners.

Besides the rangers there were many number of deputy United States marshals and deputy sheriffs moving about with the tips of revolvers sticking out over their coats. Every crowd of people to be connected with the big fight in the remotest way, was closely watched. If the spectators were to be suspected until the ring is reached, there will be plenty of hand to watch the men, even if they are of the non-fighting kind.

Maher took a walk, but had to seek safety in a drug store. The rangers were on his heels, and the crowd followed the rangers.

There had been some uneasiness felt this afternoon, and the crowd was gathered early in the day, Bob and his manager were over on this side and they threw out hints that the fight would be at the stables would drop out before the fight took place.

Although Fitz demanded that the $10,000 stake be deposited in the referee's hands, Stuart peremptorily refused.

DOES FITZ KEEP HIS PLANK?

At the time of writing there is a growing suspicion that Fitz is about to flunk. Stuart has this to say:

"Julian came to me last night and I told him that I would not let him fight to-day at noon and remain here. They were both over here this morning, and asked me whether or not they were to stay. I told Julian to pack up all their belongings and get across here as soon as they possibly could."

Small bets are being made that the pair will contrive to get themselves arrested by the Mexican authorities when they are about to shift camp.

It was given out to-day that all persons interested in the fight should go to a point near to the location by applying at headquarters at 5 o'clock. At that hour the place was thronged and the following notice was hung out:

"Those intending to witness the Maher-Fitzsimmons fight should go to the stables at 9:45 to-night. The tickets will cost not over $12 for the round trip."

TRY CATCHING HIS ROUTE.

About the same time a local evening paper blossomed out with the intelligence that Stuart's plan is to go South on the C. M. & S. A. Railway at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and that the train is met, about 175 miles south, where the outfit and the extra cars will be brought back to the place where the fight is to take place.

This spot, it is said, will be reached about daybreak, and the contest will be fought in the morning. The place is light enough to suit the kinestoscope.

Fitzsimmons and his trainers came over the river in a launch at 10 o'clock. The baggage, Houseman said that when he went across to Fitzsimmons, he took a note from George Siler, saying that the money would be placed in Siler's hands at the fight.

STUART KEPT JULIAN GUESSING.

Martin Julian came over to this side of the Rio Grande bright and early this morning and poked around headquarters anxiously. He was evidently ill at ease, and I got no time to get him to the river, so as to ascertain whether any fresh trouble had arisen.

"It's the battle-ground that's worrying us," said Fitzsimmons' manager. "I can't get the faintest hint from Stuart as to where we are to go. He's been here a long time he told us something. Every question I put to him only draws an answer that makes me more and more anxious. I don't know what he's got in mind, but I know he's got something in mind, because if the fight is to be made in Mexico we don't go back for our things. He said, 'No, leave your things where they are.'"

"That leads me to believe that the mill won't be in Mexico. Then I got from Stuart a left-handed hint, but not from Stuart, that the battle ground is to be in Arizona, and I had that to go on. I don't know what new law just as much as New Mexico does. Now, Stuart knows perfectly well that we won't fight in Arizona, because it's not a law against it, and if the ring is not to be pitched in Mexico, where in the name of goodness is the place where the fight is to be? Suppose we can only watch and wait with the rest of the gang, for he says he won't let us know until the day before the fight."

"Another thing I might tell you," said Julian, "we are not going to take any of the goods of the Maher-Fitz fight, and we put into the referee's hands. It must be in cash, so that Siler can walk over to the man that wins and give him his money on the spot."

Fitzsimmons here interrupted: "I will require that the train leave here at 10 o'clock. This is the official programme: Begin practice at New Orleans March 7, remaining until the 29th. On home-bound trip to give Birmingham two days, Nashville two days, Montgomery two days. At home on date of the fight."

Manager Bancroft announces the following team to represent the old "Reds" at the Harry Wright memorial: Willie, pitcher; Snyder, catcher; John Kelly, first base; McPhee, second base; Carpenter, third base; Wilson, short stop; McCullin, Senators and Gould, outfielders; Gould was the first baseman for the old Red Stockings.

Each Receive One.

It was announced late yesterday afternoon by Secretary Oddie, of the New York Yacht Club, that a letter had been received from Lord Dunraven by Mr. E. J. Phelps, who acted the greater part of the time as the representative of the Yacht Club, and it was also rumored that Commodore E. M. Brown, had also received a communication from the Irish Earl by the same mail.

The contents of the letters could not be ascertained, but Secretary Oddie stated that on Tuesday next the information will probably be made public.

BEAUTIFUL MODEL. Who is she? Where is she? Order from your newsdealer in advance, the Sunday Journal, and learn about this fascinating woman, a chaste Sappho of the nineteenth century.

MAHER LOOKED FULLY FIT.

As Maher lay in his room, I could detect no flaws in his condition. His face was bronzed, and while his cheekbones and lower jaw suggested vigorous training, he had by no means a drawn appearance. Clad in a heavy dark sweater, his chest and shoulders looked up, trimly, while his large hands and bony wrists were every bit as formidable-looking as those of the great champion.

Maher was evidently disinclined to discuss his condition or the outlook to any extent.

"I am feeling as well as I could expect to feel, and I don't think I am going to come out of the ring looking any worse than I do now. I'm going to fight, and don't care. I'm in Stuart's hands, and wherever he'll go, I'll go. I can't say whether it will be a long fight or a short one, but unless I'm mistaken, it will be as lovely a mill as you ever set eyes on."

Away from Maher's room, Manager Quinn said, in any means, but we will send him into the ring, nevertheless. The public has some rights in the slightest, but to Maher's winning. If I had I wouldn't allow him to go into the ring. As to the battle, we will leave all that to Stuart. We have faith in him, and if he says this is the place, we don't care if it is in Texas or wherever it is.

Having sized up both men as thoroughly as the circumstances will permit, Fitzsimmons declared that he believed Maher's chances better than Maher's. In making my selection I am not influenced by the slightest in the slightest, but in handicapping the principals, just as a regular at the race track would figure him in the betting, and I am sure that in a race, I think Fitzsimmons will prove the cooler of the two under fire.

W. W. NAUGHTON.

THE STATEMENT MADE IN THE JOURNAL YESTERDAY THAT SARATOGA LAKE MAY BE SELECTED AS THE COURSE FOR THE FOUR-CORNERED RACE BETWEEN HARVARD, CORNELL, COLUMBIA AND THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, WAS DISSEMINATED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Three Contests Decided at the New Manhattan Athletic Club in Twenty Minutes.

A majority of the members of the New Manhattan Athletic Club evidently took very little stock in the special boxing bouts which were arranged for their benefit last night, as not more than a hundred entered the gymnasium, though no admission was charged. The bouts, of which there were three, were short and sweet. Like a "key's trot," two rounds sufficing to decide each contest, though they were to have been three rounds each.

The boys sparred on a wrestling mat, and the referee, J. J. Flawley, officiated as referee, and Dr. Arthur O'Shea kept time.

The first contest was a boxing bout, competition at the Columbia A. C. tournament, had "Jack" Keefe for an opponent in the opening bout. From the call of time until Keefe was given the coup de grace in the second round, it was given and taken on the jaw and body. Toward the close of the second round, Keefe received a wicked left hander and fell on his face. He was unable to get up in ten seconds, and Goodbody was declared the winner.

The second bout, at catch weights, between the featherweights Jerry Reedy and "Tom" Carroll, was stopped by the referee, as the latter was no match for his opponent. Reedy floored him in the first round, and after that had matters all his own way.

The third and last bout was between "Jim" Clark, of Long Island City, and "Jim" Clark, of Long Island City, at featherweight. The first round was even, and the second round was a draw. In the second, Clark easily showed his superiority, and punched his opponent at the head, and the bout was stopped, and Clark decided the winner.

At the time of writing there is a growing suspicion that Fitz is about to flunk. Stuart has this to say:

"Julian came to me last night and I told him that I would not let him fight to-day at noon and remain here. They were both over here this morning, and asked me whether or not they were to stay. I told Julian to pack up all their belongings and get across here as soon as they possibly could."

Small bets are being made that the pair will contrive to get themselves arrested by the Mexican authorities when they are about to shift camp.

It was given out to-day that all persons interested in the fight should go to a point near to the location by applying at headquarters at 5 o'clock. At that hour the place was thronged and the following notice was hung out:

"Those intending to witness the Maher-Fitzsimmons fight should go to the stables at 9:45 to-night. The tickets will cost not over $12 for the round trip."

TRY CATCHING HIS ROUTE.

About the same time a local evening paper blossomed out with the intelligence that Stuart's plan is to go South on the C. M. & S. A. Railway at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and that the train is met, about 175 miles south, where the outfit and the extra cars will be brought back to the place where the fight is to take place.

This spot, it is said, will be reached about daybreak, and the contest will be fought in the morning. The place is light enough to suit the kinestoscope.

Fitzsimmons and his trainers came over the river in a launch at 10 o'clock. The baggage, Houseman said that when he went across to Fitzsimmons, he took a note from George Siler, saying that the money would be placed in Siler's hands at the fight.

STUART KEPT JULIAN GUESSING.

Martin Julian came over to this side of the Rio Grande bright and early this morning and poked around headquarters anxiously. He was evidently ill at ease, and I got no time to get him to the river, so as to ascertain whether any fresh trouble had arisen.

"It's the battle-ground that's worrying us," said Fitzsimmons' manager. "I can't get the faintest hint from Stuart as to where we are to go. He's been here a long time he told us something. Every question I put to him only draws an answer that makes me more and more anxious. I don't know what he's got in mind, but I know he's got something in mind, because if the fight is to be made in Mexico we don't go back for our things. He said, 'No, leave your things where they are.'"

"That leads me to believe that the mill won't be in Mexico. Then I got from Stuart a left-handed hint, but not from Stuart, that the battle ground is to be in Arizona, and I had that to go on. I don't know what new law just as much as New Mexico does. Now, Stuart knows perfectly well that we won't fight in Arizona, because it's not a law against it, and if the ring is not to be pitched in Mexico, where in the name of goodness is the place where the fight is to be? Suppose we can only watch and wait with the rest of the gang, for he says he won't let us know until the day before the fight."

"Another thing I might tell you," said Julian, "we are not going to take any of the goods of the Maher-Fitz fight, and we put into the referee's hands. It must be in cash, so that Siler can walk over to the man that wins and give him his money on the spot."

Fitzsimmons here interrupted: "I will require that the train leave here at 10 o'clock. This is the official programme: Begin practice at New Orleans March 7, remaining until the 29th. On home-bound trip to give Birmingham two days, Nashville two days, Montgomery two days. At home on date of the fight."

Manager Bancroft announces the following team to represent the old "Reds" at the Harry Wright memorial: Willie, pitcher; Snyder, catcher; John Kelly, first base; McPhee, second base; Carpenter, third base; Wilson, short stop; McCullin, Senators and Gould, outfielders; Gould was the first baseman for the old Red Stockings.

Each Receive One.

It was announced late yesterday afternoon by Secretary Oddie, of the New York Yacht Club, that a letter had been received from Lord Dunraven by Mr. E. J. Phelps, who acted the greater part of the time as the representative of the Yacht Club, and it was also rumored that Commodore E. M. Brown, had also received a communication from the Irish Earl by the same mail.

The contents of the letters could not be ascertained, but Secretary Oddie stated that on Tuesday next the information will probably be made public.

BEAUTIFUL MODEL. Who is she? Where is she? Order from your newsdealer in advance, the Sunday Journal, and learn about this fascinating woman, a chaste Sappho of the nineteenth century.

MAHER LOOKED FULLY FIT.

As Maher lay in his room, I could detect no flaws in his condition. His face was bronzed, and while his cheekbones and

WHERE SHALL THEY ROW?

Saratoga and Poughkeepsie Courses Discussed by Boating Authorities.

The Lake Favored Because of Absence of Tide, Width and Smooth Water.

COLLEGE COMMITTEE TO DECIDE.

University of Pennsylvania Pronounces for the Spa as the Ideal Place for the 'Varsity Four-Cornered Race.

Opinions Pro and Con.

The statement made in the Journal yesterday that Saratoga Lake may be selected as the course for the four-cornered 'Varsity race between Harvard, Cornell, Columbia and the University of Pennsylvania, was disseminated by the University of Pennsylvania.

Three Contests Decided at the New Manhattan Athletic Club in Twenty Minutes.

A majority of the members of the New Manhattan Athletic Club evidently took very little stock in the special boxing bouts which were arranged for their benefit last night, as not more than a hundred entered the gymnasium, though no admission was charged. The bouts, of which there were three, were short and sweet. Like a "key's trot," two rounds sufficing to decide each contest, though they were to have been three rounds each.

The boys sparred on a wrestling mat, and the referee, J. J. Flawley, officiated as referee, and Dr. Arthur O'Shea kept time.

The first contest was a boxing bout, competition at the Columbia A. C. tournament, had "Jack" Keefe for an opponent in the opening bout. From the call of time until Keefe was given the coup de grace in the second round, it was given and taken on the jaw and body. Toward the close of the second round, Keefe received a wicked left hander and fell on his face. He was unable to get up in ten seconds, and Goodbody was declared the winner.

The second bout, at catch weights, between the featherweights Jerry Reedy and "Tom" Carroll, was stopped by the referee, as the latter was no match for his opponent. Reedy floored him in the first round, and after that had matters all his own way.

The third and last bout was between "Jim" Clark, of Long Island City, and "Jim" Clark, of Long Island City, at featherweight. The first round was even, and the second round was a draw. In the second, Clark easily showed his superiority, and punched his opponent at the head, and the bout was stopped, and Clark decided the winner.

At the time of writing there is a growing suspicion that Fitz is about to flunk. Stuart has this to say:

"Julian came to me last night and I told him that I would not let him fight to-day at noon and remain here. They were both over here this morning, and asked me whether or not they were to stay. I told Julian to pack up all their belongings and get across here as soon as they possibly could."

Small bets are being made that the pair will contrive to get themselves arrested by the Mexican authorities when they are about to shift camp.

It was given out to-day that all persons interested in the fight should go to a point near to the location by applying at headquarters at 5 o'clock. At that hour the place was thronged and the following notice was hung out:

"Those intending to witness the Maher-Fitzsimmons fight should go to the stables at 9:45 to-night. The tickets will cost not over $12 for the round trip."

TRY CATCHING HIS ROUTE.

About the same time a local evening paper blossomed out with the intelligence that Stuart's plan is to go South on the C. M. & S. A. Railway at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and that the train is met, about 175 miles south, where the outfit and the extra cars will be brought back to the place where the fight is to take place.

This spot, it is said, will be reached about daybreak, and the contest will be fought in the morning. The place is light enough to suit the kinestoscope.

Fitzsimmons and his trainers came over the river in a launch at 10 o'clock. The baggage, Houseman said that when he went across to Fitzsimmons, he took a note from George Siler, saying that the money would be placed in Siler's hands at the fight.

STUART KEPT JULIAN GUESSING.

Martin Julian came over to this side of the Rio Grande bright and early this morning and poked around headquarters anxiously. He was evidently ill at ease, and I got no time to get him to the river, so as to ascertain whether any fresh trouble had arisen.

"It's the battle-ground that's worrying us," said Fitzsimmons' manager. "I can't get the faintest hint from Stuart as to where we are to go. He's been here a long time he told us something. Every question I put to him only draws an answer that makes me more and more anxious. I don't know what he's got in mind, but I know he's got something in mind, because if the fight is to be made in Mexico we don't go back for our things. He said, 'No, leave your things where they are.'"

"That leads me to believe that the mill won't be in Mexico. Then I got from Stuart a left-handed hint, but not from Stuart, that the battle ground is to be in Arizona, and I had that to go on. I don't know what new law just as much as New Mexico does. Now, Stuart knows perfectly well that we won't fight in Arizona, because it's not a law against it, and if the ring is not to be pitched in Mexico, where in the name of goodness is the place where the fight is to be? Suppose we can only watch and wait with the rest of the gang, for he says he won't let us know until the day before the fight."

"Another thing I might tell you," said Julian, "we are not going to take any of the goods of the Maher-Fitz fight, and we put into the referee's hands. It must be in cash, so that Siler can walk over to the man that wins and give him his money on the spot."

Fitzsimmons here interrupted: "I will require that the train leave here at 10 o'clock. This is the official programme: Begin practice at New Orleans March 7, remaining until the 29th. On home-bound trip to give Birmingham two days, Nashville two days, Montgomery two days. At home on date of the fight."

Manager Bancroft announces the following team to represent the old "Reds" at the Harry Wright memorial: Willie, pitcher; Snyder, catcher; John Kelly, first base; McPhee, second base; Carpenter, third base; Wilson, short stop; McCullin, Senators and Gould, outfielders; Gould was the first baseman for the old Red Stockings.

Each Receive One.

It was announced late yesterday afternoon by Secretary Oddie, of the New York Yacht Club, that a letter had been received from Lord Dunraven by Mr. E. J. Phelps, who acted the greater part of the time as the representative of the Yacht Club, and it was also rumored that Commodore E. M. Brown, had also received a communication from the Irish Earl by the same mail.

The contents of the letters could not be ascertained, but Secretary Oddie stated that on Tuesday next the information will probably be made public.

BEAUTIFUL MODEL. Who is she? Where is she? Order from your newsdealer in advance, the Sunday Journal, and learn about this fascinating woman, a chaste Sappho of the nineteenth century.

MAHER LOOKED FULLY FIT.

As Maher lay in his room, I could detect no flaws in his condition. His face was bronzed, and while his cheekbones and

THE VORWILDER OF SPORT.

He Easily Wins the West Side As C.'s 1,000 Yard Event at the Twelfth Regiment Armory.

The joint games of the New West Side A. C. and Company F, Twelfth Regiment, were held at the armory, Sixty-first street and Columbus avenue, last night.

The attendance was very fair, and although the games were announced to begin at 8 o'clock, it was 9 before they were under way. The management was poor and the floor was overrun with contestants, and any number of officials, who interfered materially with the view of the spectators.

The officials were: Referee, Bartow S. Weeks, New York A. C.; judges at finish, James E. Sullivan, New Jersey A. C., W. J. Lullman, Riverside A. C., Harvey, St. Bartholomew's A. C., and H. G. Paine, Company F, Twelfth Regiment; starter, Sam See, and announcer, Fred Burns.

The large entry list necessitated numerous trial heats, and the games were not concluded until a late hour.

One of the wild-card runs were twenty starters, all of whom were dispatched in one heat. It was a beautiful race and resulted in a tie between the two contestants, Thomas Cannon, of the New York A. C., and E. W. Hjerberg and G. G. Holland, the scratch men, were unable to get through in time to make the winner extend his lead.

The one mile novice walk was a most laughable event. The thirty starters were divided into two heats, and the first heat, the starters were tipped from the start. The judge of walking was kept busy dispatching the unfair pedestrians.

It was necessary to run off sixteen heats in the sixty-yard dash, before the event was decided. William, of the New York A. C., won by a foot, from C. H. Bjorkwall, who beat P. A. Sayles a yard for second place.

There were several laps in the two-mile handicap bicycle race, F. M. Holohan and C. J. Liebold being the chief sufferers. Thomas Cannon, of the New York A. C., won by a foot, from C. H. Bjorkwall, who beat P. A. Sayles a yard for second place.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New West Side A. C., second by five yards; E. A. Ware, Packard A. C., third by ten yards. Time, 7:24.45.

One mile walk, novice—John Layer, New